PRAYER FOCUS

In the light of the Keyham tragedy, let's pray for vulnerable young people.

SUN	Father God, You gave us the perfect example of family life in the Trinity and Holy Family. We bring before You children and young people caught up in dysfunctional family life. Protect them from emotional and psychological harm and give them stability.
MON	We pray for all young people suffering from any kind of abuse. Protect them from harm, bring an end to their suffering and help them to heal in body, mind, spirit and emotionally.
TUE	Many people in trouble turn to substance abuse as a coping mechanism. Help young people who feel unable to cope to find the bravery to ask for help and that suitable and compassionate help is forthcoming.
WED	Protect, dear Father, vulnerable young people from oppressive influence from others like gang members. Direct them in the ways of helpful and caring friendships so that they may develop healthy self-esteem. Help them to resist turning to criminal activity.
THU	Lord of compassion, we pray for young people who are lonely, depressed, or anxious. Help them to find help. Protect them from self-harming behaviour. Heal their wounded hearts and spirits so they no longer need or want to relieve their pain in this way.
FRI	We pray for all young people in foster or in residential care. Protect them from harm and help their carers to be loving and compassionate so that those in their care feel loveable and accepted.
SAT	We pray for all those who support vulnerable young people: teachers, social workers, youth leaders, Child Line, Young Minds, The Prince's Trust, and all others. Provide them with all the resources they need to continue their valuable work.
